

Knowledge Test

By Rachel Givens

Across:

2. The last name of the assistant director of the marketing division at Kentucky's Department of Fish and Wildlife.
4. Larry Wise recommends not touching a release aid with this part of the body.
6. PSE's 2016 women's bow model, featuring X-Force limb technology: the Premonition HD _____.
8. The last name of the owner of Saddle River Range.
11. This Bear model, the flagship women's model for 2016, is a short-draw version of the flagship model: the _____ SD.
14. The manufacturer of the Halon 5, which is suitable for women or short-draw archers.
15. This women's bow model from Darton features Efficiency Energy Transfer limbs and DualSync Cam technology.
17. Killer Instinct released two new crossbows this year: variations on this model, available in an FRT configuration.
18. This sporting goods distributor was started in the 1960s by couple Glenn and Verna.
19. Larry Wise's Coach's Corner column focuses on this important piece of archery equipment: _____ aid.
20. A vice president at the Outdoor Group: Paul _____.
22. At Zanders, this is the job title of the employee who drives the order picking truck in the warehouse.
23. The founder of CAMX Crossbows, who lends his design experience to The Outdoor Group: David _____.

Down:

1. Zanders keeps organized thanks to its WMS, or _____ Management System.
3. For its 2016 women's model, Bowtech teamed up with Eva Shockey to produce this bow series.
5. NAP presented this broadhead, an improvement upon its Spitfire design, at the 2016 Round Table.
7. According to the Clums, this type of tuning is the most reliable for matching an arrow to a traditional bow.
9. This release aid from Tru-fire comes with an adjustable strap and a length-adjustable shank.
10. The crossbow line Browning showed off at this year's ATA Show and SHOT Show.
12. This year's Media Direct Round Table was held at an archery center founded by this company known for advancing the sport of archery.
13. The group that owns such brands as CAMX, Scott and CBE: The _____ Group.

Answer key appears next issue.

Solution to our May crossword.

16. This company showed off its 360 Degree Arrow Slide Safety System and Speed-Shot bowfishing arrows at the 2016 Round Table.
19. The last name of the archery manager of Saddle River Range.
21. According to John Kasun, being in this profession is what many people fear after death and public speaking; he explains why it's not so scary after all.

THE CAMERA WITH AN unbeatable app

SPARTAN
CAMERA

The Spartan GoCam sends remote captured images to your phone, tablet or computer, in real time!
With the industry leading GoWireless mobile app, capturing photos has never been easier!

New for 2016
Verizon Service Plan
starting from $5.00/month
by adding to your existing data plan connected by

verizon

Connected
by AT&T

Sprint

learn more at spartancamera.com